

2012 NASC Middle Level National Council of Excellence Award

Continuation of Excellence Application for 2012 Winners Only

Introduction

The purpose of the NASC Middle Level National Council of Excellence Award is to provide national recognition for student councils that maintain strong year-round programs that introduce younger students to their roles as leaders, and improve school climate by encouraging and involving students to have a voice in their school, to encourage civic engagement, promote service and service learning, and provide activities in which all students can participate. This award provides broader recognition for the most worthy efforts of NASC member schools. In June 2009, NASC determined that student councils earning National Council of Excellence designation may submit a special application for the two consecutive years afterwards verifying they continue to meet the criteria for the level of the award they initially achieved and meet the special stipulations outlined in the Regulations and explained below. All councils that earned the award in 2009 and that meet the stipulations will be eligible to submit the new Continuation of Excellence Application.

Student Councils submitting Continuation of Excellence Applications may do so for two consecutive years (2011 and 2012) if they are applying for the same level of the award (ex. National Gold Councils must apply for a continuation of the gold level and National Councils of Excellence must apply for a continuation of that level). Also, student councils that have changed advisers may not apply using the Continuation of Excellence process. Those councils must complete the standard National Council of Excellence application.

To show that a school's student council is consistent in its practices and activities, the annual "council activity" period for the Award is based on the calendar year that runs from January 1, 2011 to December 31, 2011. The time period allows student councils to provide evidence from spring, summer, fall and winter activities. Application postmark deadline will be February 15, 2012.

Timeline:	January 1 to December 31, 2011	- Council activities completed
	February 15, 2012	- Postmark Deadline: Application to NASC
	April 2012	- Awarded Schools Notified
	May 2012	- Awarded schools listed on NASC website
	June 2012	- Awarded school delegates attending the NASC National Conference provided special ribbons

2012 NASC Middle Level National Council of Excellence Award Application

Continuation of Excellence Application

Eligibility

Middle Level schools applying for the NASC National Council of Excellence Award using the Continuation of Excellence application must hold current NASC membership, have been a National Council of Excellence in 2009, and be led the same faculty adviser as the previous year.

Regulations

1. Student councils submitting Continuation of Excellence applications must have earned either the National Council of Excellence or National Gold Council of Excellence recognition in 2011.
2. Student councils submitting Continuation of Excellence applications must be applying to be recognized at the same level of the National Councils of Excellence Award they received in 2011.
3. Student councils that have experienced a change of advisers are not eligible to submit an application through the Continuation of Excellence process.
4. Student councils must verify that all “Required” Standards to be named National Councils of Excellence, and the established number of “Additional” Standards to qualify for the “Gold” level have been maintained.
5. The application must be signed by the school principal, student council adviser, and student council president.
6. The application covers activities between January 1 and December 31, 2011 and must be postmarked no later than February 15, 2012 to the NASC National Office.
7. Type or print information in a manner that is neat, clear, legible and complete.
8. SUBMIT ONLY THE REQUESTED FORMS INDICATED ON THE CHECK LIST. No other items should be included. All submissions should be made on standard 8 ½ x 11” white paper. Applications must be bound by staple or secured in a report folder. Please do not use paper clips, 3-ring binders or notebooks.
9. Applications submitted after the award deadline and those found to be not in compliance with the above regulations will not be evaluated.

Procedures

1. Student council members and advisers update existing evidence in portfolios as needed to demonstrate the council continues to meet each of the National Council of Excellence Standards.
2. The council officers and adviser(s) update their 2011 portfolio and then meet with the principal to present evidence of their continued excellence.
3. If the principal finds that the council has continued to meet the qualities of a National Council of Excellence, s/he will confirm it with his/her signature.
4. Following affirmation by the principal, the student council members and adviser prepare all requested forms, review them for completeness, and return to the NASC National Office in Reston, VA.

Scoring

To be named a National Council of Excellence through the Continuation process, the student council must verify: a) that it continues to meet all “Required Standards”, and b) submit a completed application packet.

To be named a National Gold Council of Excellence through the Continuation process, the student council must: a) meet all “Required Standards” and earn a cumulative total of 40 (Required Standards + Additional Standards; and b) submit a completed application packet.
